Advising & Academic Support

Notice: As of March 9, our advising office operations have moved online. Advisors are available via email at advising@math.washington.edu or virtual drop-in advising using Zoom. Virtual Math Major Info Session on MARCH 31st; see details below.

Prospective Math and ACMS applicants are encouraged to attend an information session. Students should meet with an advisor if they would like to discuss admission decisions, course registration, academic progress, graduation, and more. Advisers are available in the Office of Student Services, C-36 Padelford.

Virtual Math Major Information Session

Attend an information session to learn more about our Math major options and to speak with an academic adviser. Information sessions are designed for any student who is interested in applying to the BA or BS Math major.

Our next information sessions will be:

- Tuesday, MARCH 31 @ 11:30am: slide presentation begins at 11:30am; Q&A beginning at 11:40am
  Zoom: https://washington.zoom.us/j/692713523
  Download the Zoom app: washington.zoom.us; please plan to join the meeting a few minutes early. Remember to test your audio and microphone settings.

We will cover:

- Admission requirements
- Personal Statement
- When and how to apply
- What math courses to register for
- Which Math option is right for me?
