Graduate Program

The Department of Mathematics offers a PhD and several Master's degrees. We have about 90 graduate students, and we typically admit 15-20 each year. It is primarily a PhD program, and almost all of our students are supported through Teaching Assistantships. For more information, follow these links:

- Graduate Admissions
- PhD Program
- Master's Programs
- Annual Course Offerings
- Funding Graduate Studies
- Contact and Resources