Kellie MacPhee among the Husky 100

Submitted by Rose Choi on April 17, 2019 - 10:21am

Graduate student Kellie MacPhee was recognized for her exemplary contributions to the community both on- and off-campus. The Husky 100 celebrates students who make connections between experiences and classroom learning. Husky 100 students are engaged in their communities, work at becoming effective leaders, and attempt to solve difficult and ambiguous challenges. To learn more about this recognition, visit https://www.washington.edu/husky100/about/.